

Staff Biographies – Honeygo Dance

Director/Instructor

- Jan Storm, Choreographer/Director/Instructor, began teaching at White Marsh in 1990 with only 27 students (almost 200 are now enrolled). Previously, she studied at Towson University, Maryland Ballet, Peabody, New York Dance Company and much more. Jan strives to provide a positive learning environment and to promote self confidence in all her students.

Assistant Instructors

- Katie Heavner brings to the program many years of dance training from private studios, numerous recreation programs, dance competitions and classes in New York City. Katie always brings a bright smile to the classroom.
- Michele Storm, Assistant Instructor, has been with the dance program since it began in 1990 and brings a wide range of dance training from Baltimore and Harford County, Towson University and New York City. Michele teaches Hip Hop to the students. She hopes to share her love of dance with all the students.

Chairperson

- Joyce Malone has been the program's chairperson for over 5 years. She administers the program and serves as the liaison with the Recreation Council, program director, instructors and parents. She also serves as the Recording Secretary on the Board for White Marsh Recreation Council.
